FIFTY FIVE YEARS AT IT

1848
1903

INTRODUCTORY

We frequently find that concerns and individuals, although dealing with us perhaps for years, have little idea of the extent of our lines and the magnitude of our business, and therefore the purpose of this circular is to inform old and new friends accordingly.

If you will read over the list of catalogues, pamphlets, etc., AGGREGATING A TOTAL OF NEARLY 3000 PAGES, and send us a list of what you are interested in, being sure to state your business unless indicated on your letterhead, we will cheerfully consider the sending of copies.

WE DO NOT send copies of "everything issued free of charge" to all applicants, for reasons obvious to all business people; but we DO supply our advertising literature gratuitously to manufacturers having worthy commercial ratings and upon very fair terms to private individuals who seek copies to aid them in making limited purchases.

We invite correspondence with all who are interested.

IMPORTANT

In asking for any of our advertising matter, if you have no printed letter-head announcing your business, please give us an idea of what your requirements are likely to be, stating approximate quantities, also the items or class of items wanted. We often have special matter, presenting certain classes of items fully, and which we distribute freely.

Compliance with these details will frequently save time and unnecessary correspondence, and we respectfully urge you to act accordingly.

Bear in mind that the information presented on the following pages treats specifically of Tools for all Trades.

Cabinet Hardware.

Builders' Hardware.

Piano Hardware and Materials.

Piano, Organ and Violin Mkrs' Tools.

Bolts, Screws, Nuts and Factory Supplies.

CATALOGUE No. 180

TOOLS

809 PAGES

This is a new edition of our Tool Catalogue, presenting in its 809 pages tools for 19 specific trades, not to mention all the allied trades whose tools are drawn from one or more of the general classes.

We have tried hard to make every page of true interest to the tool lover and the tool buyer. The 2338 illustrations and the descriptions, where such are necessary, are brief and graphic.

Tools for the following trades are specified: MACHINISTS, METAL WORKERS, CARPENTERS, CABINET MAKERS, WOOD WORKERS, WOOD CARVERS, PATTERN MAKERS, JEWELERS, PLUMBERS, GAS FITTERS, UPHOLSTERERS, SCULPTORS, MASONS, STONE CUTTERS, MOULDERS, MODELLERS, PAINTERS, PAPER HANGERS, ETC., and a very complete line of the Tools and Benches used in Manual Training and Technical Schools and Colleges.

CATALOGUE No. 114

BOLTS, SCREWS, NUTS AND SUPPLIES

95 PAGES

Illustrates, describes and gives standard list prices with regular dimensions and other necessary details of Bolts, Screws, Nuts and Supplies, notably the following: WOOD SCREWS; MACHINE SCREWS; CAP SCREWS; SET SCREWS; TAP BOLTS; BOLT ENDS; COACH SCREWS; MACHINE BOLTS; COUPLING BOLTS; MILLED IRON STUDS; CARRIAGE BOLTS; STOVE BOLTS; EXPANSION BOLTS; WASHERS; HOT AND COLD PRESSED NUTS, hexagon and square; RIVETS, ETC., and a list of staple supplies including PULLEYS AND BELTING; LACE LEATHER; BELT STUDS AND HOOKS; EMERY CLOTH AND PAPER; BESSEMER ROD; GERMAN SILVER; WIRE; NAILS; CHAIN; ROPE; CHAIN BLOCKS, ETC., ETC.

Perhaps the most valuable feature in this catalogue is the illustrations showing the different shapes of heads, etc., of Bolts and Screws, with accompanying descriptions.

CATALOGUE No. 145

BUILDERS' HARDWARE

293 PAGES

This catalogue is one particularly valuable to the home builder, and to those contemplating the erection of factory or other buildings on a moderate scale. Beginning with front door "Lock Sets," it leads through the whole gamut of Locks and Latches for inside and outside doors of all kinds, and presents DOOR CHECKS and SPRINGS; all manner of HINGES, fancy and plain, wrought steel, brass, bronze, etc.; WINDOW HARDWARE; eleven different varieties of Bolts—square, chain, barrel, etc.; ELECTRIC BELLS AND DOOR OPENERS; SASH AND BLIND HARDWARE; DOOR HANGERS; LOCKS of many kinds; thirty-six different numbers of DRAWER PULLS for Druggists' and similar use; several pages of COAT, HAT, WARDROBE and other styles of HOOKS; SASH WEIGHTS; SASH CHAIN; DUMBWAITER FIXTURES; WEATHER STRIP, etc., etc.

CATALOGUE No. 151

407 PAGES

It would be difficult to suggest an item of strictly Cabinet Hardware not chronicled in this catalogue. To begin with we present SCREWS and NAILS —CASTER NAILS, CHAIR NAILS, SHADE NAILS, CLOUT NAILS, UPHOLSTERERS' NAILS with fancy heads, and follow through with all manner of TACKS, STAPLES, etc.; BRIGHT WIRE GOODS, including Brass and Iron SCREW EYES and HOOKS of various shapes and styles; one hundred pages of CABINET LOCKS and KEYS; forty pages of CASTERS, presenting CASTERS of all shapes and sizes and for every conceivable use; thirty-four pages of HINGES and BUTTS, wrought brass and steel, plain and fancy; DESK CHAIN and SLIDES; STAY JOINTS; BED SCREWS and FASTS; SANDPAPER; GLUE; CHAIR SEATS and SPRINGS; various styles of STATIONARY DRAWER PULLS; LATCHES, CATCHES and BOLTS; ESCUTCHEONS; SCREEN HARDWARE; VESTIBULE ROD and BRACKETS; COAT and HAT HOOKS; DOWELS; SHEAVES; SHELF BRACKETS; CORNER IRONS; RUBBER TIPS, etc. etc.

CATALOGUE No. 192

FANCY CABINET TRIMMINGS

161 PAGES

By "Fancy Cabinet Trimmings" we mean the brass trimmings used by manufacturers of dressers, sideboards, commodes, cabinets, and in fact by furniture manufacturers in general. The first sixty-three pages are devoted to the various kinds of PULLS, including COMMODE PULLS, STATIONARY PULLS, TRAY HANDLES, RING PULLS, and one hundred and eleven different numbers of BAIL PULLS.

These are followed by ESCUTCHEONS, KNOBS, TOILET SCREWS, BORDER, FANCY ORNAMENTS, CLOCK CORNERS AND EASTLAKE HINGES, DESK CHAINS, SLIDES AND STAY JOINTS, FURNITURE FEET, TABLE SHELF BRACKETS, UMBRELLA PANS AND ARMS, MORRIS CHAIR RODS AND RACKS, HANGER PLATES, TOWEL AND DISPLAY RACKS, and thirty-seven different numbers of HAT PINS.

We are prepared at all times to figure on quantities of special design trimmings (other than those shown in this catalogue) upon receipt of samples and specifications.

CATALOGUE No. 170

TOOL OUTFITS FOR HOME USE

39 PAGES

In many of the leading magazines and periodicals we advertise "Tool Outfits for Home Use," and this catalogue illustrates and fully describes all five of these Outfits and also presents a small line of Benches and regulation Tool Chests and suggestions of our complete lines of WOOD CARVING TOOLS; CLAY MODELLING AND PLASTER CARVING TOOLS; DRAWING INSTRUMENTS and a few other items which, as stated on title-page, "are used more or less by novices and students."

We distribute this catalogue freely amongst mechanically inclined applicants who want a few GOOD Tools, and prefer that they be put up in some conveniently sized cabinet, portable yet presentable and accessible at all times. The Outfits are exceedingly high grade in quality and make-up.

105 PAGES

This Catalogue is of interest only to Piano Manufacturers and to Tuners, Regulators and Repairers. It shows the Hardware and Materials used in Piano Making, NOT the actions or made-up parts, but the materials and specialties required for producing these.

We do not care to supply copies of this book excepting to those directly interested in the purchase of these goods.

CATALOGUE No. 142

PIANO, ORGAN AND VIOLIN TOOLS

67 PAGES

Like the catalogue of Piano Materials described above, this book is of interest only to Tuners, Regulators and Repairers and Manufacturers of Pianos, Organs and Violins.

It presents a strictly technical line of Tools, absolutely indispensable in the prosecution of these trades, but useless in any other line. In seeking copies, state your business and your permanent address.

FOR PROMOTION PURPOSES

or to accommodate those who request information concerning some specific item or class of goods, the following circulars and pamphlets are issued. A further purpose is to frequently avoid the sending of a large and expensive book, merely to show some item contained in it.

We also respectfully suggest a thorough perusal of this list as detailing many items not mentioned in preceding pages.

Correspondents desiring copies of any of the following need only to use the number, where given, as our system of numbering was designed purposely to aid applicants when writing for copies. It is only necessary to specify the number.
